Hotel Carlton On The Grand Canal

Overlooking Venice's Grand Canal, Hotel Carlton offers a rooftop cocktail bar with terrace and spacious, Venetian-style rooms. Santa Lucia Train Station and the Piazzale Roma car park are both 5 minutes' walk away.

This romantic 4-star hotel has an elegant interior design with Murano glass lamps and antique furniture. All air-conditioned, rooms come with satellite TV, a minibar and a private bathroom with hairdryer.

An American breakfast is available each morning, and Bar Carlton Café provides drinks plus snacks throughout the day. La Cupola restaurant serves Italian and international dishes.

Hotel Carlton On The Grand Canal gives you free access to the Venice Casino. At reception, you can book restaurants and theatre tickets. San Marco Square is a pleasant 25-minute walk away, also reachable by vaporetto water bus.

Hotel Carlton on the Grand Canal is located in Santa Croce, a neighborhood in Venice, and is in the city center and by the sea. Rialto Bridge and St. Mark's Basilica are notable landmarks, and the area's natural beauty can be seen at Grand Canal and Giardini Della Biennale. Maritime Station and Zattere are also worth visiting. Discover the area's water adventures with snorkeling, water skiing, and parasailing nearby, or enjoy the great outdoors with hiking/biking trails.

Your Vessel Brilliance of The Seas

Traveling to more than 12 countries across Northern Europe and the Caribbean, Brilliance of the Seas has some of the industry's most exciting and diverse itineraries. Passengers can roam the emerald hills of Ireland, explore Amsterdam's canals, or sink into a white sand beach in the Caribbean. This mid-sized Radiance-class ship offers a sophisticated cruise experience that's ideal for couples and families who prefer superior service.

Royal Caribbean's Brilliance of the Seas sports new Oasis-class amenities and activities, including expanded dining options, nightlife, and Broadway-style entertainment. The sports deck offers fun for the whole family with a rock-climbing wall, waterslides, mini-golf, and sports courts. The Adventure Ocean club and Royal Babies and Tots nursery offers award-winning science programs and complimentary childcare, so parents can participate in adult activities. After basking in the sun and hitting the dance floor, cruisers can indulge in one of the complimentary restaurants. Savor a special meal at Giovanni's Table, or sample Royal Caribbean's signature Kummelweck roast beef sandwich. Brilliance of the Seas is one of Royal Caribbean's best ships for couples. Travelers can expect personalized service and ample onboard activities with a slightly more sophisticated ambiance and smaller crowds.

Compared to other members of the Royal Caribbean fleet, Brilliance is smaller and relatively low key. For some travelers, motion sickness may be an issue, especially in cabins closer to the front of the ship. Additionally, the overall cruising experience is geared toward families and couples. The ship doesn't offer the nonstop nightlife that some singles may enjoy.

CAFÉ LATTE-TUDES

Caffeine fix, coffee break, or after-dinner cappuccino – this café offers sweets, people watching and specialty coffee beverages morning, noon and night.

Entertainment & Activities

There's undoubtedly no shortage of entertainment onboard Brilliance of the Seas. The ship rattles and hums with activity day and night, and passengers find they have run out of time before they run out of things to do. Lively and educational courses such as casino gaming lessons and travel photography are offered. There are elaborate production shows in the Pacifica Theatre, and people-watching at Viking Crown Lounge on Deck 13. Those seeking an upscale experience can enjoy sampling wine for a fee at the classes offered at Vintages wine bar on Deck 6.

The Casino Royale is busy at night, but there is room at most of the 12 tables and 195 slot machines. The table games become particularly popular as the cruise wears on, possibly due to the free daily lessons held in the daytime.

Spanning decks 4, 5 and 6, the 874-seat Pacifica Theatre is the main theater for the ship and boasts the latest in audio and visual technology. There are vibrant colors -- red, purple and yellow -- throughout the room. Views of the large stage are excellent from all seats as there are no obstructions. Royal Caribbean Productions, the line's in-house production company, brings together top-notch singers, actors and dancers to star in three splendid original shows ranging from ballroom dance to a Broadway revue. A nine-piece orchestra accompanies the shows, which are performed at 5 and 9 p.m.

Don't miss the "Center Stage" variety revue, featuring singers and dancers performing classical, jazz, rock and swing musical numbers. Another offering, "Now and Forever," takes the audience on a musical journey of Broadway, with well-produced numbers from diverse musicals such as The Producers and Mamma Mia.

Daytime activities onboard are typical cruise fare, such as trivia and top-deck mini-golf, with plenty going on throughout the whole day, including an outdoor climbing wall. Passengers can also take in shopping and dance classes, as well as extra-fee bingo and cooking classes. The main pool is a reliable source of daytime entertainment, with a live band and amusing staff-led events such as belly flop and "Man with the Best Legs" contests.

Your Cruise itinerary

DAY ONE

VENICE

Nestled in the northeast corner of Italy and lapped by the bright blue waters of the Adriatic Sea, Venice is a marvel of history, art, culture and architecture. This iconic city has plenty of unforgettable sights and experiences to keep you coming back for years. Venice is the perfect place to visit when you cruise from the port of Ravenna, Italy.

DAY TWO

KOTOR

Looking at a map of Europe, you might be forgiven for missing Kotor — a tiny port in the already-tiny country of Montenegro. But from the moment your Kotor cruise docks, you'll enter a larger-than-life world of mighty forts and towering sea cliffs, the air filled with the refreshing smell of the ocean.

DAY THREE

CORFU

Perched above the Adriatic Sea, Corfu, Greece is the second largest Ionian island, and its size is rivaled by its tremendous history and dynamic cultural identity. Cruise to Corfu and walk through the narrow streets of Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and marvel at the Italianate architecture left from centuries of Venetian rule.

DAY FOUR

ATHENS

Athens offers a looking glass back in time into Greece's powerful ancient civilization. Art lovers, epicureans and history buffs will be delighted by the ancient ruins, museums and tavernas of this picturesque town. Just 10 minutes from the port, you'll find the Archaeological Museum of Piraeus, filled with sculptures from the Bronze Age to the Romans.

DAY FIVE

MYKONOS

Nestled in the heart of Greece's Cyclades archipelago, Mykonos pulses with irrepressible energy. With its powder white houses, sparkling blue waters and red-hot nightlife, The Island of the Winds is as colourful as the people who call the island home. You can walk narrow marble pathways laced with purple bougainvillea blooms or go cycling on two wheels past off-the-beaten-track Ano Mera village.

DAY SIX

ARGOSTOLI

The Ionian island of Cephalonia in postcards portrays idyllic beaches, forest-clad mountains and crystal-clear waters. But adventure in its capital city of Argostoli is much more than meets the eye. This small town comes full of friendly locals – and visitors quickly fall for its traditional Greek lifestyle and spectacular natural attractions, like the Koutavos Lagoon's nature preserve.

DAY SEVEN

CRUISING AT SEA. One last day to take advantage of all the premium benefits this ship affords including a farewell party with those ship mates you have become close to.

DAY EIGHT

VENICE

Upon arrival back in Italy its time to disembark before your onward journey enjoying to the maximum your last night in Venice.
