VESSEL FEATURES

Spectrum of the Seas launched in April 2019. This is the first ship in the Ultra Quantum Class, at 168,800 GT, with 16 guest decks and 4246 passengers. Spectrum of the Seas embraces a number of first-ever cruise features such as the line's first private enclave for suite guests, and new stateroom categories. First-at-sea features include Sky Pad, a virtual reality bungee trampoline experience located at the rear of the ship, and Star Moment, a lively karaoke venue.

Spectrum introduces the two-level, three-bedroom, 261 sq.m. Ultimate Family Suite, accommodating up to 8 guests. It includes a master bedroom with bathroom facilities boasting ocean views and a recreation room with surround-sound equipment for karaoke, movies or video games. Other Quantum ship features are top deck adult solarium and pool with retractable roof; the complimentary North Star, a London Eye-style capsule on the top of the ship on an articulated arm that swings passengers over the ocean at a height of 100m above sea level; a sky diving wind tunnel in a flight chamber made of glass; robotic entertainment display screens; and for kids and young-at-heart adults there are bumper cars, a surf simulator, roller skating, and circus facilities.

Spectrum's new concept of Dynamic Dining eliminates set dining times or assigned seating, no main dining rooms and no formal night. There are 18 restaurants including the specialty venues, none with more than 500 diners. Complimentary options include formal dining in the main 3-level dining room, The Café @ Two70 with gourmet casual dining, Sea Plex Doghouse, Italian cuisine Sorrento, and Windjammers Marketplace for buffet and bakery. For an extra charge there are nine options that include: the debut franchise Jamie's Italian eatery, Sichuan Red, Chops Grille, The Hotpot, Wonderland Dadong, Izumi Japanese for sushi, the Chef's Table (seats just 14), and the Noodle Shop on the lido deck.

Your Cruise itinerary

From Day 1 - Day 2 (Singapore)

Singapore is small in size but big on excitement. Discover the multicultural medley of this city-state through its neighborhoods: Check out the statue-adorned temples of Little India and the colorful pagodas of Chinatown. Cruise to Singapore and explore the city's Malay section on the Kampong Glam Heritage Trail, which will take you past Arabic-influenced mansions and the gold-dome-topped Masjid Sultan mosque. Experience the contrast between the lush rainforest flora of the Singapore Botanic Garden and the high-tech "super trees" and biodomes of Gardens by the Bay. Complete your Singapore adventure with a panorama from the rooftop of the Marina Bay Sands or a Singapore Sling cocktail at the historical Raffles Hotel.

Day 3

Cruising at Sea.

Day 4 (Nha Trang)

The easy-going city of Nha Trang is known for its six-mile palm-lined sandy beach with clear turquoise water. Spend some time relaxing by the bay at Nha Trang Beach or the more secluded but arguably even more beautiful Bai Duong Beach, shaded by lushly forested mountains. See the picturesque boulders overlooking the waters at Hon Chong. Then, check out the ancient Po Nagar Cham Towers, with its sand-colored temples that date back to the 700s. Head to the Hon Mun Marine Protected Area for scuba diving and snorkeling, or take the 45-minute drive past rice paddies and coastline and hike to the contemplative Ba Ho Waterfall and its three swimmable pools.

Day 5 (Ho Chi Minh)

Officially named Ho Chi Minh City in 1976 to celebrate the reunification of Vietnam, many in the country's largest city still call it Saigon, especially when talking about the city center. Cruise to Vietnam to get to know the immense, bustling metropolis that is HCMC, as its commonly abbreviated, by visiting Cholon (Chinatown) in District 5 — wander its narrow streets and picturesque pagodas, and step foot in the incense-filled Thien Hau Temple. Then, fill up on spicy beef noodles at Ben Thanh market. See the massive dragon carpet inside Independence Palace, the former home of South Vietnam's president before reunification, or learn more about what the Vietnamese call the American War at the War Remnants Museum.

Day 6

Cruising at Sea

Day 7 Day 8 (Bangkok)

In Bangkok, the old meets the new: Skyscrapers contrast ornate Thai temples, high-end cocktail bars lie around the corner from bustling stalls of street-food vendors, and tuk tuk rickshaws pedal beside cars on the busy streets. Cruise to Bangkok to explore the city's green space at Lumpini Park, where you can take a stroll alongside the early-morning tai chi practitioners. Encounter the culture's deep roots at the Bangkok National Museum, home to the country's largest collection of Thai artifacts, including Khon masks and traditional armaments. Then, head to Wat Pho to see the 15-meter-tall, 46-meter-long, gold-leaf-covered statue of the Reclining Buddha. Or behold the towering spires and porcelain flower patterns of 19th-century Wat Arun, or Temple of the Dawn.

Day 9

Cruising at Sea

Day 10

Arrive back in Singapore and disembark before heading to the Elegant Furama Riverfront Hotel in central Singapore. Spend a full week exploring and taking in this incredible place.
