“A Touch of Fred and Wilma”

Nestled against natural rock formations in the Cederberg and far away from big city lights lies Kagga Kamma Nature Reserve; a location which connects visitors of today with the soulful heritage and landscape once inhabited by the Khoi and San of the past. Kagga Kamma is unique in that it comprises an untouched Karoo-like wilderness: decorated in bursts of wildflowers, scattered and fascinating rock formations and an intriguing ecosystem of small creatures scarcely seen or found anywhere else.

Guests to the resort are touched by the incredible experience bestowed upon them when visiting the Reserve and often find themselves wishing to return to a place so undiscovered and exclusive. Enjoy a number of modern comforts while reconnecting with the earth at Kagga Kamma resort as time goes by slowly.

Placed perfectly in the Cederberg Mountains, Kaggga Kamma Nature Reserve features an outdoor swimming pool, restaurant and spa. Accommodation consists of 10 unique man-made cave-like suites that were constructed to integrate with the natural sandstone formations, and 5 spacious thatched huts, decorated in warm tones. Each air-conditioned unit comes with a seating area and tea-and-coffee-making facilities. Kaggga Kamma's à la carte restaurant serves South African cuisine and offers a selection of wines from the Cape Winelands. Weather permitting, guests can dine under the stars at the open-air boma. The pub and lounge area has a TV with satellite channels. Guests can relax at the on-site wellness offering a range of massages and treatments. Kaggga Kamma offers a variety of activities and excursions including hiking and nature drives. This resort is a totally one-off experience and returning is a certainty.
