What are Global Dream Themes

Global Dream Themes were born from listening to our junior GVC members, children and grandchildren. Those ideas they wanted to be a cowboy or a princess. We've all had them right? It turns out us adults are just as enthused by these ideas too. Ever had a thought about how it would be to be James Bond for example? So although most of our dream themes cater for the younger generation, our travel experts have been out there searching for the grownups and added some really spectacular ideas. Please send us further suggestions.

Theme Dream Vacations, including weekend or midweek breaks are exceptionally true value for money and really could make someone's dream come true. For Grandma who longed to be Queen, or dad who secretly wants to ride a Harley. Ever wondered what it would be like in Count Dracula's castle? These themed breaks are incredibly authentic and will not disappoint the participants.

Planning the ultimate vacation is no easy task if you want it perfect. GVC have crafted a team of exceptionally talented vacation planning experts to make things a little easier less stressful and considerably cheaper. It might be that special Princess moment for your little Princess, maybe Dad's dream of driving off into the sunset striding a Harley Davidson or Mums right to be throned Queen if only for a short time. Whatever it may be allow the team to help you design that "Once in a Lifetime Vacation"
